2024 Form 1099-B

Furnished by Edward Jones to report sales, redemptions and exchanges of securities in taxable brokerage accounts

Use this document to help understand your Form 1099-B from Edward Jones, which is issued as part of your Consolidated 1099 Tax Statement if you sold, redeemed or exchanged securities in your taxable brokerage account during 2024. Form 1099-B also reports cash received in lieu of fractional shares.

Common questions

How do I report sales and exchanges?

For each security sold, redeemed or exchanged, you may be required to provide certain information relating to the disposition of the security, including the date acquired, date of sale or exchange, quantity, proceeds, cost basis and gain/loss. Generally, this information should be reported on Form 8949 and Form 1040/1040-SR, Schedule D. It's important to note that you may need to report the activity even if you did not realize a gain or loss from the sale, redemption or exchange listed on Form 1099-B. Refer to the form instructions for details. Transactions are reported on Form 1099-B from Edward Jones in four sections and should generally be reported on Form 8949 accordingly:

- Short-term Covered Form 8949, Part I, Box A
- Short-term Non-covered Form 8949, Part I, Box B
- Long-term Covered Form 8949, Part II, Box D
- Long-term Non-covered Form 8949, Part II, Box E

What is cost basis?

The cost basis of an investment is usually the amount you paid for it, including any commissions, fees, reinvestments and original issue discount (OID). It also may include adjustments for sales, principal returns, mergers, splits and spin-offs.

How does Edward Jones determine my cost basis?

For equities and fixed-income securities, Edward Jones uses the original lot cost basis method. In Select accounts, the first-in, first-out ("FIFO") lot-relief method ("sell order") is used, and in Advisory accounts, a tax-efficient sell order is used.

For domestic open-end mutual funds in Select accounts, Edward Jones uses the average cost basis method and FIFO sell order. Separate averages are calculated for covered and noncovered shares. In Advisory accounts, the original lot cost basis method and tax-efficient sell order are used.

In all cases, specific shares may be identified at the time of the sale, and shares missing cost basis are sold first per IRS requirements unless otherwise specified.

Can I deduct commissions I paid to buy/sell a security?

Commissions are generally not tax-deductible as an itemized deduction. Instead, commissions are generally added to the purchase price and subtracted from the sale price to determine the gain or loss on disposition of the security. The Edward Jones confirmation reflects the total purchase cost, including commissions. Form 1099-B reflects the net proceeds received after the commission has been subtracted. For additional information, see IRS Publication 551, Basis of Assets, and refer to the Stocks and Bonds subsection under Cost Basis.

What are covered and noncovered securities?

Cost basis regulations require Edward Jones to report cost basis to the IRS when securities "covered" by the regulations are sold, redeemed or exchanged. Cost basis is not reported to the IRS for "noncovered" securities. Covered securities are those purchased beginning in:

- 2011: Stock shares not in a dividend reinvestment plan
- 2012: Mutual fund shares and stock shares purchased through a dividend reinvestment plan
- 2014: Fixed-income securities designated by the IRS as being "less complex"
- 2016: Fixed-income securities designated by the IRS as being "more complex"
